

Consent Policy

“Little eco steps” out of school club asks parents permission for their children to have contact with animals, the administration of medication and the application of sunscreen and therefore could form the basis of this policy. This is not exhaustive list of consents to be gained from parents.